

PLANNER EMERITUS NETWORK BOARD BIOGRAPHIES

David Kwong, AICP

David W. Kwong, AICP is the Assistant City Manager for the City of Rancho Cordova. In this role, David oversees Public Works, Community Development and Economic Development. David, AICP, is a native of the Sacramento region. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree from CSU, Sacramento in Business Administration with a concentration in Real Estate and Land Use Affairs.

He has more than 34 years of environmental, planning and development experience from his work at the City of Sacramento and City of Stockton, as well as in both San Joaquin and Placer Counties. His experience includes both significant development projects that have had changes on the physical environment of the communities to major policy changes including multiple comprehensive general plan updates and zoning code revisions.